HOTEL ACCOMMODATION FOR VISITORS TO PARIS.

Information has been received from the Indian Embass France that it is extremely difficult to secure suit accommodation in hotels in Paris for intending visitors f India unless sufficiently long notice is given. Every effor however, made and rooms are booked in suitable hotels, w they can be obtained. It may be pointed out that when h accommodation is secured through Embassy channels, rates quoted are sometimes higher than those the visitors be able to obtain if reservations were made by them di through the normal agencies of recognised Travel and Tou Services. This fact may be noted by intending visitors Paris so that there may be no misunderstanding on their if accommodation is at times not available or the rates off to the Embassy happen to be somewhat higher than visitors might have been able to secure for themselves.

Because of the number of requests for booking h accommodation which are being received from Indian visi coming to Paris for non-official purposes and of the time energy that these applications demand from the Emb staff, it might perhaps be desirable to discourage pri visitors from using the Embassy for this purpose.
